PRINCIPAL'S CORNER

...Handgames are a traditional game played by Indigenous Peoples across North America for hundreds of years. Two teams sit across from each other while drumming and singing fill the room. One team hides objects in their hands and passes them around, while the other team tries to guess where they're hidden. The goal? Guess right and win all the hidden items!

Next week, our school's handgames team will be competing against other schools in our division at the annual handgames tournament. It's always a loud, fun, and exciting event that our students love being part of! The tournament takes place on Thursday, April 17th, at the Grimshaw Multiplex—and it's open to the public, so come by and check it out!

Winners will move on to represent our division at the High Prairie Pow Wow in early June. Good luck to our team—have fun, be loud, and give it your all!

SCHOOL GROUNDS

With warmer weather approaching, I've noticed that some students are interested in heading out over the lunch/recess break. If you would like for your child to have permission to leave school grounds during this time, we ask that you please give consent via a phone call or email to tanorris@prsd.ab.ca
